

Please let the law stand as it is. I have stopped receiving telemarketing calls since signing up for the Do Not Call list and it has stopped the annoying phone calls, especially early on Saturday mornings. Please do not change the law and allow them to start up again.